19. Vocation

Clayton Christensen, How Will You Measure Your Life?

For this final critique, please write about your plans are for the future. If you have job or graduate school plans, what are they? If you are planning to move to a particular location, where?

Then say something about your life plans. What will you try to accomplish with your life? How will you judge whether you have been successful?