

ASSOCIATION OF CHRISTIANS IN THE MATHEMATICAL SCIENCES

23RD BIENNIAL CONFERENCE

June 1-4, 2022

Hosted by Azusa Pacific University

Featured Speakers:

Matthew DeLong
Mathematics Chair,
Marian University

Talithia Williams
Statistics Professor,
Harvey Mudd College

Jason Thacker
Chair of Research in Technology Ethics,
The Ethics and Religious
Liberty Commission

FEATURING:

- Participants from fields including computer science, mathematics, and statistics
- Invited and contributed talks on faith integration, history, pedagogy, and current research
- Peer-reviewed proceedings
- Fellowship over meals, worship, and prayer
- An excursion to the Huntington Gardens or the Norton Simon Museum in Pasadena

Preconference Workshops (May 31-June 1, 2022)

- Mathematics in Context: Its History, Philosophy, and Connections with the Christian Faith
- Professional Development Workshop for Graduate Students and Faculty
- Integrating Ethics into Your Statistics and Computer Science Courses: Integrated Ethics Labs

Free registration this year for first-time participants!

- Travel and childcare grants available
- Submit talk proposals by March 1, 2022
- Register by April 30, 2022 at acmsonline.org/conferences